“ As I sit at my desk working for Mr. Charlie, I can't help but to think about you. I truly miss our sporadic conversations, your advice, the laughter, and of course the way you use to call my name. Yep I still have to fuss at your Son, (My Bestie) but I wouldn't change it for the world. You are definitely greatly missed. I will always remember and cherish every piece of advice you gave me. Love you Mrs. Fannie continue to rest well.

“My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand. My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father’s hand.”

The recent death of your beloved Fannie may and will sting for a while. She is no longer physically here with us. However, we can rest assured that she lives on in the hearts and minds of the many people with whom she came into contact. We will sorely miss Fannie Jenkins, but, are comforted by the fact she lives on eternally with the Father.

“ Fannie I will miss your beautiful smile and sweet spirit in our beloved community. May your family and especially Charile find comfort in the many memories you shared and knowing you'll see each other on the other side of heaven. I wish we could have spent more time and got to know each other even the more. We at Waverly Place saw another angel get its wings and take flight. Rev. Savage and I offer our sincere condolences to your family. Bye Fannie, with tears and love in my heart. Sherry Savage

“ I met Fannie “Lefty” over 3 years ago as we began our journey as Red Hatters. She was my sister and friend. She called often during my illness and visited me with that beautiful smile she always displayed. She was such a wonderful woman. You touched the lives of all who knew and loved you. Rest my sister. My prayers and condolences to your family. ”
