“ I am now and often find myself thinking about Fannie. We shared so many good conversations over the years we were acquainted. I guess she particularly comes to mind since this is the anniversary of her birth. RIP Fannie.
Luv ya, Carolyn

“ My prayers and deepest sympathy is with the family. Fannie and I worked for many years together at Fulton County Dept. of Family and Children Services. She was a dear friend as well as co-Worker. I will truly miss her. I know that the Lord will give you strength during this most difficult time. Lugene Childs

“ I offer heartfelt condolences to the family and friends of Mrs. Jenkins. May the God of all comfort strengthen you all as you keep in mind that His loving resurrection provision assures us: Your dead ones will live....They will rise up. ~Isaiah 26:19. Jesus confirmed his role in this promise when he said: I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life. ~John 11:25. Continue to draw close to God and look ahead to the future when death will be no more. (James 4:8, Revelation 21:3-5).
