“ I just want to say that this was the the most important woman that I had the Honor to spend my life with.... She is and will always be my first mother... She show my whole family how to live our lives the rite way.... We lived, loved, and yes we learned... This family may have lost a Great Queen but we've Gained another great one.... May Mrs. Fanny Lee Shirley my grandmother S.I.P. Are love you mama.....

“ Your mom and my aunt Vivian were BFF back in the day. Your mom knew me before I was even born. Our families lived in 360 and we shared a lot of great memories. Ms Fanny was a sweetheart and the love she showed me and my family will always be remembered. They are all together in heaven rejoicing. Will never forget her. Love you too Cynthia. Prayers for you and the family.

“mama , my favorite person ever. The person I called for everything. No matter who bothered , my own mother? I called on you. Can't name how many times I called you on Loretta old self but you always told me you'll lace up yo shoes & come get whoever. I hold the moment where you was able to give my daughter a kiss & she kissed you back so tightly. I hold sneaking you soda to my dearest as well. Every memory with you is one I hold forever , thank you so much momma. No matter how many grandchildren , great grands & more so , you had a way of showing everyone how you unique & beautiful they was like if they were the one & only no matter how many others there was. Thank you for that momma. I love you so much , I know it would be selfish to say I wish you were still here because you fought a long fight of 92 years but I wish you was still here because I'm not okay with a goodbye or see you later but I am okay with the fact you gained your beautiful & your flying high with the Heavenly Father above.”

“ My mother in law. When I met you 18 years ago. I just loved you like a mother since then. You welcomed me with opened arm. I knew I wanted to be part of your family from that day. When you came to live with us. I was just a happy as your daughter was. Thank you for loving and excepting me. I'm going to miss you Momma.

“ Mama Ms. Fanny as I called her from the 80's. She was always looking out for me and gave me words of wisdom. Calling my father and saying she is with me and I'll call when on her way home. Finally reconnecting in 2012 she welcomed me like I never left. She met my daughter and called her granddaughter...Listening to gospel music with you was nice and bringing you cake that Unique would say stop buying...lol you rest in Peace knowing you left a legacy. Hugs and kisses.
