“ My Condolences to the Paterson Family.

I worked with Fay at Emory Midtown, she would come by and we would just kicked the breeze. I too moved to Georgia from New York so we would talk about the good old days of New York and not miss that snow and cold at all. Faye was a dear friend and will be missed.

“ My Condolences to the Paterson Family

I have known Fay all my life; I will always think of her as my sister. Sometimes it would be weeks or years before Faye and I have seen each other, whenever Fay is around she always made me feel like it was just yesterday I had seen her. Faye would found ways to keep me laughing.

I remember my sister and Brother Sharon, Derick, Fay and I drove down to Virginia for our cousin Shamale wedding anniversary.

We laughed all the way there; after the party we all went back to the hotel and me and fay stood out on the baloney all night talking about life knowing that we had to drive back to Atlanta in two hours.

This is only one out of many things I remember about Fay.

Love you always, I will miss you!!!

“ To thw family of Fay, i want to thank you all for sharing her with me for all these years at Emory Midtown, but we know God was sitting on the throne and saw that she was getting tired. So he put his arm around her and whispered come with me, because there will be nomore suffering, crying, and no more pain. All your work down here is done. Come my angel. I have your sparkle star in heaven. And you are happy now.

“ Faye you will be surely missed here at Emory University Hospital Midtown. You always brought a bright smile, a great sense of humor, and a ray of sunshine when you graced our floor. I'm gonna miss you boppin' to the music with your ear phones on, and your New York accent always reminded me of home :-).

We know you are in a better place and your are resting in the Arms of the Lord, but we will surely miss you. God bless you and if you see my Momma, give her a kiss for me :-).
