“ Our deepest condolences to Trisha and family, to Fitz and his family for his unexpected and shocking passing. May his soul be eternally blessed as he enters the Heavenly realm.

Although I have only met Fitz on two occasions, Trisha's family and mine have been friends in Jamaica all our lives. Through friends, I have heard of the wonderful person that he was, and know that his memory will live on in all who knew him well.

Trish, our thoughts and prayers are soaring for God's arms of consolation as you walk this difficult road. You will be together again one day. Blessings, light and peace.

We lit a candle for Fitz. 🙏

“ *Dear Fitz,
The love you shared with Trisha will be treasured forever. We were honored to travel from New York to participate in your beautiful wedding. Mom (Aunt Jo) offered a Prayer of Blessing and my great-granddaughter Khloe was the flower girl (a highlight she continues to talk about). It was a joyous family occasion and your devotion to each other has been heartwarming.*

Fitz will be greatly missed. May Perpetual Light Shine Upon You and May You Rest in Peace.

Trisha, know that your family loves you, is here for you (even if we can't be there physically) and will support you in any way we can!!

*Love,

I am grateful for all the family history and knowledge that you gave me, the very first time I ever came to Jamaica.

“ Fitzroy Sylvester Johnson

I vividly remembered the year that he was born— 1965 in the village of Duhaney Pen within the parish of St. Thomas, Jamaica.

It was a bright and sunny day some time before noon at 66 Duhaney Pen Road. I'm not too sure if the district was numbered at the time.

I was a kid playing in the backyard when I heard my aunt Ruby, my grandaunt Irvine and my great grandmother Agnis talking about the baby coming.

My father, Wilfred Prince, gave Fitzgerald his name. He wanted to name him Fitzgerald after the late John Fitzgerald Kennedy. My aunt Ruby Prince wanted him to be named Sylvester, but they compromise and named him Fitzroy Sylvester Johnson.

Later Fitzroy, who we lovingly came to call “Fitzy”, migrated to live with our cousin Merle Williams (“Aunt Merle”) in Kingston.

A few years later after my Aunt Ruby gave birth to Paulette Johnson, Maureen Johnson and Sharon Barclay, I migrated to the United States and occasionally visited Aunt Merle, Aunt Irvine and Fitzroy. These memories are left in the back of my head like it was yesterday.

Fitzy, may the blessings of the Creator be with your soul to eternity.

*Love and peace,
Your cousin Carl Prince*

“ Fitzroy was our classmate at Swallowfield All Age School on Whitehall Avenue in Kingston Jamaica along with Kiplyn Clarke and Janet Brammer. We were the more intelligent minds in the school at the time. In 1976 we took the then Grade 6 Common Entrance Examination. When the results came out Fitzroy and Kiplyn was given a place at Calabar High School, I passed for Immaculate Conception High and Janet Brammer passed for Merl Grove High. We bumped into each other twice since that time until I heard of the passing of a Fitzroy Johnson on social media. Immediately I knew it was Fitzroy Johnson my classmate from Primary School. This was later confirmed by Kiplyn Clarke. What a way to lose your loved ones. "It's so hard to say goodbye to yesterday! May his sweet soul rest in peace!
