“ I first met Florence about nine years ago. My first impressions were that she was engaging and talkative, pleasant and delightful. She was simply a wonderful woman. Once in her presence, you quickly realize that she warms you with her infectious, warm and friendly smile that reveals the fabric of which she was made. May her soul find eternal rest in the highest of places.

Cedric Daley - May 29, 2021 at 12:58 PM

“ The Master Weaver

*Our lives are but fine weavings,
that God and we prepare,
each life becomes a fabric planned,
and fashioned in his care . . .*

*We may not always see,
just how the weavings intertwine,
but we must trust the Master's hand, and follow His design.*

*For He can view the pattern,
upon the upper side,
while we must look from underneath,
and trust in Him to guide.*

*Sometimes a strand of sorrow,
is added to His plan,
and though it's difficult for us,
we still must understand.*

*That it's He who flies the shuttle, it's He who knows what's best,
so we must weave in patience,
and leave to Him the rest . . .*

*Not till the loom is silent,
and the shuttles cease to fly,
shall God unroll the canvas,
and explain the reason why.*

*The dark threads are as needed,
in the Weaver's skillful hand,
as the threads of gold and silver,
in the pattern He has planned.*

*To: Our Cousins, The Joneses
Fr: Your Cousins, The Lindos
Forever in our hearts & prayers.
We love you!*

“ Our sincerest condolences,

Miss Jones was like a grandmother to my family and me. Always kind, always encouraging, and warm with the blessings she would pray for those around her.

It is with deep sadness that we must experience her departure this year, but at least now we know that her soul is free and in loving hands.

With Love and Support,

Nekaybaw Evans from the Evans Family

God bless.

“ To: Elaine, Pam, Tony, Donovan, Patsy, Pete, nieces, nephews and in-laws

My sincere condolence on the loss of your Mom.

We have been a part of each other lives since the sixties and have been there for each other across 3 generations. You are my family and your loss is truly felt.

Your Mon was a live wire - She was energetic and a no nonsense woman. I remember growing up, how special she was to my Mon and she made us laugh a lot, Her stories were vivid and mostly entertaining. She will be missed

Rest in Peace Mrs. Jones
