“ My sister Flo would say how can you laugh and smile at the same time cry when I think about how much I miss you but I laugh when I think about the conversation and laughs we had over the phone she was a very strong woman of God a prayer warrior she would say how do you know if you have faith if it's never tested she started the prayer line that brought us together I learn so much from my little big sister ❤️

“ Sending Love Hugs Prayers and Condolences to Herbert and to all family members.

 Have you ever thought about the last words or the last conversation you had with someone?*

We will never know the when or where lifes journey will lead us too.. But God "already know"...

The Holy Bible teaches us.. gives us instructions on how to "be ye also ready" we don't know the time, hour, when or where the Lord will come...

 My sister Flo was ready...*

A genuine solider, Holy Spirit filled women of Faith...Hold on good soilder. *Safe a set for me

“ My dear Aunt Flo will be missed tremendously. I am forever grateful for the love and hospitality that she gave during my tour of duty in the military at Ft. Gordan, Ga. My aunt and cousin Tanya would take good care of me when I traveled to Atlanta for the weekend. Her beauty, peaceful demeanor, and calming voice are the memories I will cherish.
