“ Franchot was a good friend to my mom. He was just the nicest guy and had such a great, warm spirit. He was the DJ at my wedding in 2007 and had us jamming. He's no longer in pain, and I pray that that brings solace to all who loved him. I send my deepest condolences to his family.

“ My heart is heavy this evening after finding out that my close friend is gone, I knew from our last conversation a couple of weeks ago when you he said it is what it is, he wouldn't tell me what it was.. I knew you were in pain as you would say it each time you came from dialysis. I will never forget you the conversations we use to have and the fallouts because you thought yuu were Me. Know it all 😭. But we always remain friends. I could go on and on with a million stories, but I want his family to know that he truly loved you guys and was so proud to be a grand daddy to two beautiful grandkids that he often talked about and shared pictures. Me and my family are going to miss you. The picture was taking back in 2010 when he joined me and my family at a reunion. May you Rest In Peace Henry. To his wife, mom, dad sisters and brother I offer my condolences to you 🙏🙏🙏
