“ Francina was one of my eldest cousins. I remember the time when she went to Seminary school & I had all types of activist questions and statements about what I learned over the years. Francina was so gentle, understanding, and as truthful as she could be. I’ve always admired her because of that. She’d always seemed to have this type of glow/light to her, in my opinion. God granted me some gifts in helping others to heal. Knowing how open Francina’s heart was, I truly wished I was able to be there for her, but God took away her pain & she suffers no more. Francina, I love you & you will be missed dearly. Rest in your Paradise 🙏🕊️🕯️ ~Lil Cuz Michelle
