“ I have very fond memories of growing up across the street from his house. I remember being sad when his family moved in because the older couple that stayed there before him were very kind to my sister and I. Then we found out that he had two sons the same age as my sister and I. We quickly became friends with his sons and when I turned 10 my family moved away and once again I was very sad to be leaving the comfort of Stratford Mills Road. Although I was very young, I still remember the kindness of him and his wife. I am so sorry for his passing and my heart goes out to the family. When I close my eyes I can still see him in the driveway waving at our family vehicle as we pulled into the driveway.

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the friends and the family of Mr. Frank Elmore Anderson. The loss of a love one brings us the anguish of grief. We can find comfort and hope in God's word, the bible. The promise of a resurrection at Acts 24:15, John 11:25 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. In your time of sorrow you can draw closer to God in prayer. ~James 4:8.

“ My condolences to the family of Mr. Frank Anderson during this difficult time. May you be comforted by your loving memories of him, family, and close friends. Know that our Heavenly Father Jehovah (Psalms 83:18) is near to us in our time of need. Gods word the Bible assures us a time when sickness and death will be done away with, (Revelations 21:1-4 Isaiah 33:24) and a time when will reunite with our loved ones again (Acts 24:15 , John 5:28,29) Draw close to God in prayer. Philippians 4:7 tells us that God will grant us the mental peace we need by means of Jesus Christ. May this peace be with you now, and the days ahead. “ I offer condolences and Scriptural encouragement to the family and friends of Mr. Anderson. God made a loving provision to raise up dead ones when he "sent his only- begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1 John 4:9). Jesus encourages us..."Do not let your hearts be troubled. Exercise faith in God, exercise faith also in me." (John 14:1). Remember... God is faithful and always keeps his promises! Consider Revelation 21:3-5 and Isaiah 55:11
