“ Sending my heartfelt condolences to the Cummings-Mix family. This hurts deeply, knowing that I won't hear your voice again. You were truly a Man of God. Small is stature but POWERFUL... It's said that when God lays someone on your heart and in your spirit.. you reach out to them... I tried and I guess that's why this hurts soooooo much. You were all I had connecting me to the (Cummings) family and now God has picked you from his beautiful garden because he has work for you to do. God is saying "Well Done My Good and Faithful Servant" for the work you have done was not in vain. You've touched a lot of people who not only "LOVE YOU" but "RESPECT YOU". All though my heart is BROKEN my memories of you will forever be in my heart. Gone but truly never forgotten. Your Niece.. Beverly Williams

“ My deepest condolences to the Cummings & Mix families, I fondly recall Bishop Cummings as he presided over the 8th Episcopal District during my high school & college years. "It's nice to be nice! and Be Sweet!" still rings in my memories. He expressed his appreciation of the saxophone to Alex, which prompted Alex to play him a "birthday sax-o-gram" a few years ago! As I continue my bereavement journey, please know that I share your grief and you are in my thoughts & prayers as you endure this sad time. He is gone but never will be forgotten ~

I remembered when he came to my church, what a beautiful and kind person. We were the young people in our church then. He came in and treated us like he had known us forever just a warm beautiful smile, he just fit in.
