“ To my wonderful and loving uncle Frank, I will always feel blessed and grateful for the time that you spent with us as children, and seeing us grow into adults with promising futures. I'm glad my mom had a wonderful brother like you. A loving brother who protected and guided her while living in Detroit, and then some time later, introducing her to future husband (dad) Cleveland. Mom is always speaking lovingly about you, and dad has always respected you and admired you. The time that I spent with you in Georgia will be missed, but always cherished. I will definitely miss your great sense of humor, real-world advice, hanging together, and of course, the good ole trout and bass catches that you shared with us (lol).

So, I'm no longer sad, but happy to know that you made home first. To greet us later with the almighty Father, our loving Savior, and the forever living Holy Spirit.

Love you Uncle Frank! Love Dejuan.

Shirley you and Frank had a good life together. When I met him years ago, it was like meeting a new friend, not a stranger. He had a wonderful personality and a big smile. Cherish the wonderful memories you and he created together. My prayer is that God comforts you as I know He will.
