Penning a tribute on my brother-in-law, Fred's tribute wall is one of the most difficult tasks that I've ever done. I have known Fred for so very long. I was only a small child when he and my oldest sister, Minnie, were united in marriage. At first, I did not want this to be so, because I did not want to loose a sister. Little did I not know I was gaining a "father figure".

I grew up with Fred's children, (Frederick and Regina). They became my little brother and sister. I lived in Fred's house and he never showed a difference (thank you Fred). In every aspect of my life that I have ever needed help in, and he could provide - Fred did.

Thank you Regina for sharing.<3 <3

The earth is the Lord's, and the fullness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein. ~Psalms 24:1

“ To the Family and Friends of Mr. Adams:
May God's loving resurrection provision comfort you all as you keep in mind: "God sent forth his only-begotten Son into the world that we might gain life through him." ~1 John 4:9. God made this provision at great cost to himself, thus showing his deep love for us! He promises: "Your dead ones will live....They will rise up." ~Isaiah 26:19. Jesus encourages us: "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Exercise faith in God, exercise faith also in me. ~John 11:25.

“ To Mr. Fred,
I will always love and keep you in my heart forever. Since I was a child in the Junior Choir @ First Baptist West End in Birmingham Alabama, you watched over me and cherished the voice that God gave me, protected and fought for me when others would not support me and was envious of that gift. Nutured that gift and made it grow so that I could bless you and others with it as an adult. I was so happy in my adulthood that you had many opportunities to come to my church to see me on the organ which made your heart skip 2 or 3 beats and sent the word all the way back to Birmingham about how your baby could tear up the church with that organ. I could see how very, very happy that made you and how each and every time you let me know without a doubt, that you loved me and how proud you were of me!!! I can still hear you singing in the choir one of my favorite songs... I KNOW GOD CARES FOR ME!!! You really tore that song up. I'll miss you here on earth, but I'll see you in heaven.. I Love you Mr. Fred.....
