“ I appreciate Deacon Dumas for adopting Elizabeth Andrews High School and hosting our graduation ceremony for our students at New Biggining Full Gospel Baptist. He stated that the church was there to support the community. Deacon Dumas stood by his word, never waivered, nor did he charge the school to use the church. I will miss the Gentle Giant. His spirit will live on in the hearts and minds of those that knew him.

“ Upon moving to Atlanta November 1986, my first temporary assignment was at GMAC and I was to report to Fred Dumas. The rest is history. You were my boss, my mentor and my friend. You were there when I lost both parents, when I had a child, at her softball games, her many graduations and the birth of my grandson. There's so much more in between. I will truly miss you and sharing so many laughs with you. Rest well and I will love you forever for how you touched my life.
