“ There are too many ways to describe the heart of "Fred Donald" :) he would scowl at me when I called him that - we worked together at Ryan. In the last week since his passing, i have read so many wonderful tributes to him, both here and at work - words of such kindness and love, all true from what I came to know about him. Most of our conversations at work and during his illness(es) were spiritual; about God's love for us. Fred Donald sleeps and is waiting for Jesus to call his name. I am confident, it is well with his soul. Blessings to his wife Kathy and the family he leaves behind, please find comfort in knowing we will see him again.

“ I knew Fred from PwC. He always made my day better when he saw him. He had an awesome sense of humor, and genuinely cared about his work, but more importantly, he cared about the people he worked with. He had an infectious smile to go along with his sense of humor and I will always cherish our conversations about a whole host of issues. Gone way to soon, but I hope the memories of good times with Fred will help his family get through this difficult time.

“ I am so very sorry to hear of Fred's passing. He was one of the first people I met at PwC, as a new joiner. He was always so nice and kind. It meant a lot, especially in those particularly stressful times of an engagement. Seeing a friendly face of someone who cared made those times much easier to get through. My thoughts and prayers are with his family and friends during this difficult time.
