“ My favorite member of my uncle Frederick Harrell (uncle Reb) is when He would play games with us. One of the games he made up was called coin collector. He'd put water in a large jar like a pickle jar or another large jar. Then, fill it and place a ketchup top at the bottom. Whoever was able to get their coin in the top at the bottom of the jar would win and receive all the change collected. Such as quarters nickels, dimes and pennies. He taught us how to make homemade kits and fly them. I will never forget all the time that he spent with us.
