“ Mr Fred was my Dad's (Mr Walter Tucker) best roommate at Manor Lake from 2022-2025. My 88yr old Dad misses Fred's cheerful and mutually respectful manner. Dad knew he was in the right room when he saw Mr Fred's stylish hats and always said he wish he'd known him when they were both younger (with a smile on his face as he knows they would've had fun hanging out). We love you Mr Fred as forever Family and are so happy to have met you to connect w/ your beautiful Family.

“ I will always remember Mr. Fred from the stories he shared while sitting on the rockers outside. He shared stories about his business in the flooring/carpentry industry with such passion and detail about his work! I would have loved to have him provide such care to any home of mine. Not only that, the love in his voice when he spoke of his wife; such great stories. Wow, such a great man who loved his family and took pride in his work. I will always cherish that time. The younger generation would have def benefitted from sitting at his feet and hearing his knowledge!

“ One of my memories is when he would seat outside with a cigar and Mandy on his lap for hours and be at peace just enjoying the sunshine.
