“ I was in troubled times when I went to Ms Dent for an apartment. I had just came out of a terrible relationship, and my previous apartment was broken into. She welcomed me with open arms, and checked on me from time to time. She wasn't the type who felt you were beneath you because of your life story, she respected everyone. It sadden me to hear she had passed. I'm truly grateful to have met someone like her. It will be difficult to find some to fill her shoes. She was such kind hearted, strong, helpful, selfless person. If we all were to be that way and looked after one another what a different world it would be. My condolences to Ms Dent's family and friends. May she rest in peace.

“ I couldn't believe it when they told me about this. But God doesn't make mistakes so sweet lady take ur rest. I came to her two years ago and told her I want to come back home (Prince Avondale) we laughed about it. And within a month she call me and told me I got the apartment again. I was there for 12 years and back for 2 now. U will be truly miss. Love Tracy Pace and Family.
