“ Grief can be so hard, but our cherished memories help us cope. Hold tight to those memories....Lean on each other for support.... And look to God’s word the Bible, for comfort and strength. James 4:8 encourages; “Draw close to God, and He will draw close to you.”

“ My condolences in the loss of your loved one. May you be comforted by the words found at Psalm 147:3 which says: He (God) heals the brokenhearted; He binds up their wounds. Also the scripture at Psalm 68:20 says; The true God is for us a God who saves; And Jehovah the Sovereign Lord provides escape from death. These scriptures can provide comfort during this sad time.

“ I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death and I extend condolences to you all. Continue to "Draw close to God and he will draw close to you." ~James 4:8. He is aware of your sorrow and has made a provision to resurrect dead ones: "He sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." ~1 John 4:9. Jesus assures us..."I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." ~John 11:25.
