“ I was Gakobe and Gionne's 5th grade teacher. The minute the came into my class it was instant chemistry. Being that I was their 1st male teacher, I was always told how I was their favorite teacher and they became 2 of my favorites as well, not because they were the best students, but I was able to see their immediate growth to become young men. I saw Gakobe become a leader, and a student that strived to be the best which is all I ask of all of my students. He wanted to do anything in the class to help me. He was truly one of my favorite success stories and he will be dearly missed.

“ It is difficult to put into words what Gakobe (Kobe) brought to our lives, but those of us who knew him will forever carry his light. Kobe had a way of making every day a little brighter. Whether it was his infectious laugh and smile during class discussions, his determination to succeed left an impression on everyone he met.

One memory that stands out to me as his sixth-grade teacher was working with him to succeed in his academics as a student. His personality and character embodied—compassion, resilience, and humor. Though his time with us was far too short, his impact will be felt for years to come. May we honor his memory by living with the same joy and kindness he shared so freely.

My heart goes out to you Ms. Milton. I have no idea what it feels like to be going thru something like this. Gakobe was on my church's prayer list every Sunday. I don't need to tell you how special he was and what a fighter. Know I am sending a big hug to you and Gionne and the rest of the family.
