“ Garland was a great man to work for and to work with. He always seemed to be happy and upbeat. He possessed a wealth of knowledge about FAA equipment and was a great manager for many years. Everyone enjoyed being around him, and he will be truly missed by many, many people. RIP Garland. My condolences to the family.

“ The FAA and earth lost a great man. I did not know him very long, but he was a great manager, always took care of his people. Always got what we needed, and some. I will certainly miss his funny stories and the smell of his microwave bacon in the morning. Our condolences to his family.

“ I offer sincere condolences to the family. May God's resurrection promises comfort and sustain you as you look ahead to the time when "all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." ~John 5:28,29. God always keeps his promises...continue to "draw close to him and he will draw close to you." ~James 4:8
