“ My condolences to the family of Garnette Smiley. No matter who we are, losing a loved one in death is painful. May you find comfort in the God of all Comfort, during this difficult time. (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) I'm sure you have many fond memories of Garnette and she will be missed. God promises a time when we will be able to spend time with our loved ones and not have to worry about death, because the "last enemy death will be brought to nothing." (1 Corinthians 15:26) God also lovingly provides a hope of the resurrection for our loved ones who have fallen asleep in death when he says "all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." (John 5:28,29)

I hope you find these scriptural thoughts to be uplifting. If you would like to learn more about God's wonderful promises visit www.jw.org. If you have any questions feel free to contact me at lvtsew@gmail.com.

“ To the Family & Friends of Ms. Smiley: Please keep in mind: "God sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1John 4:9). Jesus confirmed his role in this loving provision when he said:"I am the resurrection and the life. The one exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25). God is faithful and always keeps his promises! (Revelation 21:3-5)
