“ You and your family members have my deepest sympathy for your loss. Please know that our heavenly father, Jehovah brings comfort to all who have fallen asleep in death with the hope of the resurrection. And how we look forward to the day when the last enemy, death, “is to be brought to nothing”! (1 Corinthians 15:26) Confidence in Jehovah’s resurrection promise brings us comfort and a sure hope for the future.

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family. I know that the loss of a love one brings much grief and agony. Thanks to our loving Heavenly Father we can find much comfort in his word the Bible. Our Heavenly Father gives us the promise of a resurrection (John 5:28, 29 Acts 24:15) and the end of death and suffering. (Revelation 21:3, 4) Getting to know the true God and his son Jesus, assures us all eternal life. (John 17:3) For more Bible based comfort on how to cope with the death of a loved one visit:

“ This message is in response to Gary's death. I grew up in Capital Homes and was childhood friends with Gary, Daryl and Marcus, I use to attend Sunday school and church with them at Liberty Baptist church, Their mom Ms Blackwell had three sons and my mom had three sons our parents were single mothers and I was the only girl in the family. My mother is 80 years old now and she is so upset that she found out about Gary's death from reading the obituary notices in the newspaper. I am posting this in the hopes that someone will see it and contact me so that I might be able to give you my moms number so that you would possibly contact her and let her know what happened to Gary so she can have some closure she really is upset about this loss. He had been by her house three weeks before his death and spent the whole after noon with her and my father. And she is upset she missed his service. So if anyone out there knows how to contact Daryl or Marcus and forward this message to them to give my mom a call her name is Mrs. Lena Robinson or contact me at ladyjmonfrt@gmail.com and I will give you her home phone number.

“ We are saddened by the death of our long-time close friend (and play son) but at the same time we are comforted and uplifted by the fond memories we have of him, and the wonderful four hour visit we had with him a few weeks ago. Our thoughts and prayers go out to the family and his dear friends who have shown extraordinary love and kindness during this difficult time.

“ To The Family & Friends,
I'm so sorry to hear about your loss. Death is something that we can never get use to because it affects us all. Please allow me to share with you some encouraging words that I found in God's word the Bible. “Do not be afraid, for I am with you. Do not gaze about, for I am your God. I will fortify you. I will REALLY HELP YOU.” (Isaiah 41v10 please read) These words are reliable and true. So Continue to “throw all your anxiety upon him Jehovah God (Psalms 83v18 please read) because HE CARES FOR YOU.”(1 Peter 5v7 please read) For more encouraging info please visit www.jw.Org

“ To the Family: I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death. Jesus' words recorded at John 14:1 encourage us...“Do not let your hearts be troubled. Exercise faith in God, exercise faith also in me.” God's Word promises...“Your dead ones will live....They will rise up.” (Isaiah 26:19). When Jesus was on the earth, God empowered him to raise up ones who had fallen asleep in death. He will do this on a global scale because he promises...“The hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out.” (John 5:28,29). “God's word is truth.” (John17:17).
