

Gary Flowers

January 21, 1972 - May 27, 2022

Gary Flowers, 50, of Lawrenceville, GA, passed away on May 26, 2022 unexpectedly. He was born to parent Bertha Flowers on January 21, 1972 in Camden, NJ. her first born.

He graduated from Camden High School.

Gary worked as a Electrical component manufacturer, before residing in Georgia he also worked in a meat processing plant in Kalamazoo, Michigan where he works several long years, but before then he was a cook in different restaurants.

After a number of years of service, He wanted to move to Georgia where he could be close to family. Being in Kalamazoo, Michigan for so long he wanted a change.

He enjoyed Listening, collecting music, also producing music was another big for him. Gary has lots of music distributed on SoundCloud, Reverb Nation, as he was known as “Jerzey Beats”. He finally distributed the single “This Is America” and his debut album “ Super Ninja” on all streaming platforms. A project he was determined to put out. Besides the music he always had a goofy personality as well, his jokes were off the wall and funny as he referenced a lot from tv,movies or even music as well as using his imagination to make your laugh.

His only child Aliyah Flowers, that he loved, even through his struggles. She was always in his heart.

Gary is survived by:

Bertha Flowers, (mother), Robert Flowers, (brother), Marlin Seymore, (brother), Latisha Flowers, (sister), Angela Perkins Flowers, (sister), Tracey Homles, (sister). As well as nieces, nephews, uncles, and aunts.

He knew you guys loved him like your own son! I remember the day we stopped by after he went to take his drivers test. He was so proud and you guys told him how proud you was of him too! Even though we divorced I know deep down he knew we all loved him very much. Rip Gary
