

Gary Lane Henderson

April 30, 1953 - November 9, 2023

Gary Lane Henderson, born April 30, 1953, son of the late, Mary Frances Scales. He grew up in Scottdale, GA with his mother and grandmother, Daisy Bigsby. He was a graduate of Clarkston High School Class of 1972. While in high school, Gary excelled academically, and participated in many sports including; football, gymnastics, track, and field.

He also furthered his education and attended Dillard University, where he majored in Literature, with hopes of becoming a literature professor. Gary worked in many local pawnshops, before becoming Line Lead at Edwards Bakery company. He was married to the late Jill Henderson, and they remained close until her passing.

Gary also loved fishing, spending time with his children and great-grandchildren while they participated in sports. He was a proud, prideful, and God-fearing man. He instilled courage and strength in all his children, he was loved by many and will dearly be missed.

Services entrusted to Gregory B. Levett & Sons Funeral Home, Scottdale Chapel, 351 N. Clarendon Avenue, Scottdale, GA 30079.
