“ Am still having great difficulty processing the news of your passing and accepting the reality. Am happy that I, along with your church family, Refuge Shiloh, joined in the celebration of life service on Saturday. We miss you dearly and others whom you have extended yourself to reach over the years and be a blessing. Walking in that sanctuary and seeing that empty chair will always be a reminder of your legacy. The memories we hold dear will be permanently etched in the hearts and minds of those left behind. Forever cherished, forever missed.
