“ To Gene's family, my heartfelt condolences go out to you during this difficult time. May God's strength and comfort be with you right now and in the days ahead. Gene and I shared many years as coworkers at UAW-Ford's Atlanta Assembly Plant, and we were among the very last group of employees to retire during September 2007. He was a brilliant man of integrity----- incredibly helpful, thoughtful, kindhearted, yet bluntly honest. And, always, he was a gentleman. In addition, Gene was my "brainy" scrabble-playing buddy (who I could never EVER beat!!), and most important of all, a true friend. So now, I pray that you're resting peacefully, Gene. Your memory will always be treasured, and you will be deeply missed by so many people who were blessed to have known you.

“ My cousin, Gene, was a man of few words but when he did speak he had something special and important to say. He truly loved his family and was always quick and willing to entertain us and to help in anyway he could. I will truly miss him.
