“ GG was a super woman. My fondest memory of her is after every service I would find her an plop in her lap at the age of 30 plus. She would always pretend to fuss and tell my Aunt Bobbie to make me quit but this went on for years. She always showed me so much love and talked about everything under the sun. When I went to visit her in the nursing home several months ago, along with Elder Evelyn Blaine, she knew us for a brief moment but even when she forgot her funny humor kept right on talking to us. She looked beautiful, just like Mrs Geneva (my GG). I asked her could I sit in her lap and she just laughed. Love you GG
