“ *My Dearest Nephew Tommy,
I am sorry I am not able to be there with you and your family. Just know that I have been praying for you all and remembering the very last conversation your Mom and I shared. She was so supportive and offered encouraging words for the kids and I who was experiencing what you all are going through. Always remember as hard as it may seem, We do have a High Priest that can be touched by the feelings of our infirmities! Trust Him! Lean on Him! He is able!!
