

Genevieve Shearer

April 3, 1928 - May 31, 2023

Genevieve Robinson-Shearer was born on April 3, 1928, to the late Ruben Robinson, Sr. (1886-1940) and Kate Pugh Robinson (1899-1989) of Lecompte, Louisiana.

Genevieve was the third of six children in this union. She was preceded in death by her husband Roosevelt Shearer (2000) their marriage union lasted 50 years. Children: Donald Ray (2022), Raymond Louis (2021), Betty Jean (2014) and Gregory Pedro (1983). Grandchildren: Brannon, Earl Jr., Chanelle and Mylan. Siblings: Leatta Tolbert (Chicago), Bessie, Ruby, Abe and Ruben, Jr. Robinson of Louisiana.

Genevieve was baptized and accepted Christ at an early age.

Genevieve relocated from Lecompte, LA to Chicago in the late 1940s and was employed as a seamstress. She then met her husband and they were blessed with 10 children.

Genevieve was a devoted wife, mother and grandmother. She was known to be an independent woman of few words, had positive energy, very funny, strong-willed, highly energetic, enjoyed cooking, shopping and was still getting around the house doing chores until she was hospitalized.

In 1993, Genevieve and Roosevelt relocated from Chicago to Decatur, Georgia to be closer to their roots.

Genevieve departed this life peacefully for her heavenly reward on May 31, 2023 among close family members.

Genevieve's memories will continue to live in the hearts of her family and friends, her legacy is emboldened through her Children: Earl, Jenette, Billy (Eletha), Melvin (Sharon), Marylee and Betsy. Grandchildren: Ramada, Zamien, Quarnelle, Shinette, Nicole, LaTonya, Brandon, Jeremy, Billy, Jr., British, Nichola, Raymond Jr., Raynard, Rayford, Raywood, Antoine, Lynette, Melvin Jr., Courtnie, Caitlin and Christen. Great-Grandchildren (35), Great-Great Grandchildren (6). She also leaves behind a host of nephews and nieces whom she had a unique and special relationship with all.
