“ Belated condolences to the family and friends of Chief Master Sgt. George R. Blackwell. I met Chief Blackwell and his lovely wife Dorothy through a mutual friend several years ago after church. Since that time I have tremendously loved and cherished my friendship with them both. From the instant he entered a room, you immediately knew 'Chief George' exemplified the meaning of "Officer and Gentleman" because of his dignity, humility, self-respect and appreciation for humanity. Dorothy and George were such a welcoming couple, intelligent, compassionate and their hospitality was unequalled. I cannot count the times they invited me in their home for a visit, dinner or just because that I didn't leave them feeling like a celebrity! Their love and care was genuinely special and he was a man of honor, not mere accomplishment and stature; but, also a profoundly decent man. Although I knew it was eminent, words could never express the devastation I felt at learning of his departure. To his sons Mark and Damien who he always spoke so highly of and was obviously proud of - cherish his memory and remember: Inheritance is what we leave TO our loved ones is fleeting; yet LEGACY is what we leave IN them and cannot never be lost, exchanged, bartered or taken from us! I wish each of you God's continued grace and blessings for strength and courage. Live well and keep God out front in all that you do. - Ms. Terry L. Thomas
