“Wow, where do I start! When I first met PG and his then three young handsome sons, I just fell in love with the family. My friend Joan aka Sudz always talked about PG and the family—it was like I knew them before having the pleasure of meeting them. Photos all over her office. We’d occasionally get together at the house and PG was always cooking and made certain that everyone had enough to eat and drink. Man, such a beautiful and caring family “always”! Sudz would always tease us and call us fossils but it was cool!

PG will always be around in spirit. Just remember to say his name and remember the fun times,—the way he’d laugh, sing, smell—his sayings and how he’d look at you when you did something contrary to his beliefs. He’s a real man!

“ The only time saying good bye is so painful is when you know you'll never say hello again.

*As we mourn your transition we celebrate the gift of your life.
It is with a Samba hearts I pay my last respects to you my Cousin George
Cunningham (Percy); May the wings of Angels sing thee to thy rest as your labor ends, may the great spirit give light on your path to our Lord's door, and the clouds of sorrow never rest upon your journey. I pray the Lord raps his loving arms around Paul, Jacquelyn, Marie, Jean and the Cunningham family, granting them the vision of understanding and temperance in these trying times. Until we meet again Coz in faith as you ride off I bid you Clear Horizon, Fair Winds, and following Seas -- Family always remember there is a life after this one "MATTHEW 27/45-61 AND 28/1-10". We now have another bonafide angel looking over our family Amen Amen Amen*

“ My deepest sympathy and condolences to the Cunningham family and friends. Further along we will understand why. George was a man's man a hard and dedicated employee. He took the company to heights we never knew. A most reliable dedicated, reliable and a stickler for details as a Cableman. Those he trained to be cable men are some of the best you will ever meet in the business. My family and I will always cherish the memories we shared together and all the knowledge he freely shared with me and all his fellowmen. , George sleep on take you rest, Rest In Heaven. Joel , & Jermaine you can rest assured that your father's contribution will live on for many generations of cable men & women #originalcableman #qualitytech
