

George Davis

March 4, 1959 - January 23, 2026

George W. Davis Jr. was born on March 4, 1959, in Eatonton, Georgia, to George and Addie Davis, both of whom preceded him in death. He was the youngest of four children and a proud graduate of the Putnam County Education System.

George passed away peacefully, leaving behind a life defined by hard work, love for family, and quiet strength. He was a devoted father to his two children. As a widower, George carried the memory of his beloved wife, Roberta Davis, with him always, honoring their shared life through cherished memories.

For many years, George worked as a truck driver, a career that reflected his strong work ethic and deep sense of responsibility. He took great pride in his work and in providing for those he loved. He retired from First Fleet after years of dedicated service.

George accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior and was a faithful member of Hillcrest Church of Christ, where he attended both in person and online. In his free time, George enjoyed fishing, listening to gospel, jazz, and blues music, and watching sports. He was a loyal fan of the Atlanta Falcons and the Georgia Bulldogs.

In addition to his parents, George was preceded in death by his beloved wife, Roberta Davis; his brothers, Roosevelt Abrams and James Abrams; and his sister, Lelia Buchanan.

He leaves to cherish his memory his two children, Monique Davis and George (Karima) Davis; three stepchildren, Willie Jones III, Kevin (Valeria) Jones, and Yolanda (Terrance) Brown; seven grandchildren, De'Vante Feltus, De'Angelo Feltus, Stephanie Feltus, Vincent Feltus Jr., Sky Davis, Khloe Davis, and Gabrianna King; four step-grandchildren, Maurice (Kaena) Jones, Tiffany (William) Jones, Ashley (Dennis) Holmes, and Tamela Wingfield; along with a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and dear friends.
