“ As an anxious middle schooler who became friends with Danie, he made me feel accepted and seen very early on. I was at the house EVERY day and he became me second dad. He'd come home and yell, "what's the word"... he was very patient in teaching me the proper responses.... Thunderbird! "What's the price?" 80 twice! "What's the action?" SATISFACTION. Thank you for being in my life.

“ Uncle George was a man of many talents. He was the smartest person I knew, and he had a way of convincing you of anything with his loving and gentle manner. He was a military man who lived by values and discipline, and he was a devoted family man. He loved his family more than life itself, and he showed it in everything he did.

When I first met Uncle George over 40 years ago, I was struck by his big heart and his willingness to take me in as part of his family. He never looked back, and he became a constant presence in my life. He was the life of the party, always ready with a joke or a story, but he was also the person you could count on to move mountains for you in a heartbeat.

Rest in peace, Uncle George. You will be missed, but never forgotten.

Much Love Always
