“ I am so sorry for your loss. Grief can be so hard, but our special memories help us cope during this most difficult time. May Jehovah, the God of all comfort and the love of your family give you the strength you need to endure. (2 Corinth. 1:3,4)

“ I extend my sympathies to the family of Mr. George Charles Leist. To lose someone in death is an experience we can never truly be prepared for. The loss leaves a void in our lives that can never be filled. I have found in times such as these that the words from our Heavenly Father can be a source of encouragement. He tells us at both Acts 24:15 and John 5:28,29 that he intends to resurrect our loved ones. We will be given the opportunity to welcome them back. What a joyous occasion that will be. We will not be welcoming them back to an Earth filled with problems and issues that faced in the past. Rather, as Revelation 21:3,4 says, and he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. What a wonderful future for our deceased loved ones to look forward to. I truly hope the words and promises from our Creator, Jehovah, will sustain you and give you the strength you need to get through this difficult period.
