“ My dearly beloved brethren, George Nathaniel Thomas. A relationship that transcended brothers related by blood & DNA. George is a brother from another mother whom I got to know and loved by way of marriage to my sister, Jennifer Patricia. He personified that older brother with whom you could, as we would say in Jamaica, “hold a meds” as in have a moment of meditation or as the lyrics of the Wailers say “come we go reason now”...sit down and talk. I was telling a very good friend of mine that I am heading to Georgia for my brother George who has passed & he responded “wait a minute, I remember him, he helped you moved into your law office when you bought the building”. Indeed, my friend Saladin was correct, George was there for me to help me moved into my law office building when I acquired it in 1999. His wife, my sister Pat was my real estate agent, & after we closed the deal they came down to Montgomery, Alabama from ATL. How poignant of Saladin to have said as he recalled the occasion & his memory of George, “that was some 20 plus years ago”. Indeed, over two decades. Quite frankly, I have know George for over thirty years & we developed a bond or mutual respect and admiration. He was like a brother from another mother. I was there for him & was compelled to go see him & be with him as he transitioned. As he told me that his healthcare providers had given him 6 months to live, he evidently detected a sense of despondency and sadness in my reaction so much so that he said to me “what’s wrong? Don’t be sad”....in retrospect I ask myself how could I not be sad, but then I unselfishly tell myself he is suffering no more & relieved of ill health....as we would say in Jamaica “YEAH MAN, A SO DI TING SET....BLESSED LOVE MI BREDAAA!!!
