“ The life of the party! Always ready for whatever life brought. I am going to miss you so much. You were the one any of us could run to. Building 124 was our stomping ground where all of us got to spend time with each other. You accepted all of my friends like they were your grandkids. I will forever cherish the memories , our virtual carnival outings, and our lip gloss sessions. Rest easy grandma.

“ Grandmother you would always tell me it’s my fault why you stuck in Florida because you had to come to my high school graduation in 1999. I secretly was not paying you any mind because in my head I was happy that I now would get to spend many days at home with you singing, LAUGHING, and hearing about all your child hood days and “if you fi young again”! I am going to miss you sooooo much. You are gone but will never be forgotten. I love you grandmother 🥰

“ Mommy, I'm not sure if I have the words to express how much I am going to miss you. The one thing I know for sure is that you will forever live in my heart. You thought me how to love, give selflessly, and the value of family. I can imagine you in the kitchen making dinner for your family. You loved us hard and we are going to miss you. Here's a muah for you...forever and always. Love Jen

Hi Mom,oh how I'm going to miss you.It has been a while since I last saw you but the memories will last a lifetime . I remember when ever I would visit St Croix and stop by to see you,you insisted that I come back and pick up my "tea bush "which grew outside your window.I also remember our conversations at Suarez Supermarket just to name a few.You are gone but you never forgotten.To Janet,Wickliff,Bernie,Steve and Noel my heart felt sympathy.Love Frederick.

Grand-Mommie as I so passionately called you, I am so happy and thankful for the amazing memories you gave me. From the first day I met you, I was treated like family. You always reminded me of my down South Village I had as a child. Such a wise, sweet, generous and awesome woman of God. Family has always been number one to you and I almost felt as though I knew everyone from the gallery of photos you kept and incredible memories you shared of each. I thank you from the bottom of my heart for opening your home and making my transition as smooth as possible. I always think about our times out shopping, getting our nails and feet done and eating whatever we felt like! We would always crack up laughing when you would Get calls wondering where you were and not at home. Boy do we have some secrets!

*- Rest Well With The Lord
Forever, Lesia*
