“ Gerard, I am truly blessed to have been able to call you family. You were always there for your family; through the ups and downs. I admired your work ethic and always wished to be as proud of my kids as you were of yours. We always found time to reflect on how each of us had grown in Christ over the years! Through it all we definitely learned how to become better husband, fathers, sons, and friends. I can’t count the number of times we shared the grill to make some masterpieces; from your famous burgers to my ribs. Life is so fleeting! I know we were supposed to finish those last cigars from the trip to NYC., but as the master’s plans go , he needed you to come home to finish some things on the other side. I will still enjoy a stogie every now and then, but now with a different sense of enjoyment knowing that we shared these precious moments as brothers-in-law! To Lucretia, Ashley, Joelle, Chris and Pierre, Thanks for sharing your Husband, Dad, and Protector with us! He will always be a part of our lives, no matter where we go and what we do! We love you , “Big Dawg!”
Love, Big Fred/Stephanie/Lulu/Lil’Fred
