“ Dear Tina, Connie, Roy, and family,

We were saddened to hear about the passing of your mother, Trudy Coiley. I have no words that I can really express and send comfort to you. Trudy was a sweet and loving person, with lots of Godly wisdom. I also know that there will certainly be a void in your lives, but we are comforted that she knew Jesus Christ as her Savior. The relationship she had with Jesus was paramount in her life. She had a fun-loving personality. Time has passed, and not realizing that time gone can never be retrieved. We have many fond memories of our time together. I am so deeply sorry for not keeping in touch. We pray also during this time of sorrow that you will find comfort in knowing that your Mother is at peace in the presence of God.

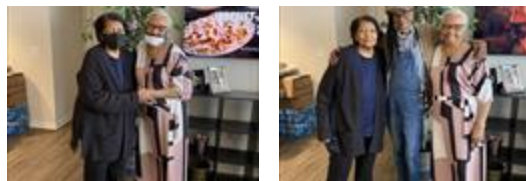

Again, please accept our sympathy and condolences to your family in remembrance of your precious mother.

“ Cousin Trudy was a wonderful woman. She babysat my brother and I when we attended Redan elementary school. She was my grandmothers favorite cousin, and for good reason. Intelligent, empathetic, driven & God fearing—there aren't enough words to capture her. She is dearly missed.
