“ God feels the pain in your heart and he cares for you. (1 Peter 5:7). Death is an enemy. According to Isaiah 25:8 He will swallow up death forever, And the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.” What a wonderful future hope.

“ My sincerest condolences to the family of Gibran Windom. Losing a loved one in death is painful. It is such times like this that we should look to the Almighty God for comfort. Psalm 34:18 says, "Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit."

May your reflection on this promise and your many fond memories of Gibran give you the strength you need to endure this difficult time.

“ To the Windom family... words can not express the loss of Gibran. He was not just my co-worker, he was family. It was great to have had the pleasure of working beside him for 10yrs at First Class. I will always cherish the memories of always having to help him out of a haircut when he first started cutting hair, Or calling me at 3am in the morning looking for someone's number to get help!!! Or the smile he would have when his girls walked thru the door at the shop... His famous words to me... "CeeeeeeCeeeeee..hey mama" Rest in Heaven my friend. You will truly be missed!!!

“ Remember... "God is our refuge and strength, A help that is readily found in times of distress." ~Psalm 46:1. "He sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." ~1 John 4:9. Jesus assures us..."I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." ~John 11:25.

“ Words cannot express my condolences to the Windom Family. Gibran and I have somehow always ended up crossing paths. From little league basketball at Greenforest, to walking the halls of Columbia, to the campus of West GA, to seeing him at the mall chunking the deuces with clippers in the other hand....R.I.P. GIBRAN. I know you are in good hands now looking down on us all. Rest easy brother!

“ My condolences in the loss of your loved one. May you be comforted by the words found at Psalm 147:3 which says: He (God) heals the brokenhearted; He binds up their wounds. Also the scripture soon to be fulfill at Isaiah 33:24 which says: And no resident will say: "I am sick". The people dwelling in the land will be pardoned for their error. May these scriptures provide comfort and encouragement to you at this sad time.

May Jehovah give you peace and comfort during this time of deep sorrow. God promises to take the pain and sorrow of sickness and death. Thus, Jesus said we will see them again (Rev. 21:3,4). When you reflect on your dear loved one reflect on God's promises.

“ Dear Gibran,

I remember asking you to DJ the Class of 99 reunion...without hesitation, you obliged. Everytime I saw you throughout the years, you were always so calm and relaxed. I loved that about you. You will be missed.
