“ Although I didn't know her personally, I would like to offer my condolences to the family. Loosing someone we love is one of the hardest things we will deal with in life. However, many have found comfort by looking into Gods word the Bible. The Bible assures us of a time in the near future when Gods Kingdom mentioned at Matthew 6:10 will rule over mankind. (Daniel 2:44) Under that Kingdom "no resident will say I am sick". (Isaiah 33:24) There will be no more death. (Revelation 21:3,4) The loved ones we lost in death will be resurrected. (John 5:28,29, Acts 24:15) We will live forever here on earth in the abundance of peace.(Psalms 37:11) May our Heavenly Father Jehovah,(Psalms 83:18) the God of peace grant you the mental peace and comfort needed at this difficult time. Meditate on Gods word the Bible ,and draw close to our Heavenly Father. (James 4:8) May you be comforted by family and friends,and your loving memories until these promises are fulfilled.

“ I'm very sorry that Ms. Clark fell asleep in death. I offer condolences and Scriptural comfort to you all. Please keep in mind..."God sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1John 4:9). Jesus assures us: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25). As you look ahead to the time when your loved one is raised up, remember: "God is for us a refuge and strength, a help that is readily found in times of distress." (Psalm 46:1)
