“ My deepest condolences to Debbie, Rose, Ken and all the grandchildren of my dearest sister Elaine; she was a lovely, kind and caring person with a smile that lights up the room. Her family, friends and all who knew her will be missing her and remembering the shared times they had with her. Now that she is in the arms of the Lord; she is no longer in pain.

Rest in Peace Elaine my sister and friend.

Love always

“ Our Deepest Sympathy and condolences to Debbie, Rose, Ken and all the grandchildren of our dearest Aunt Elaine . Although your pain and sorrow must seem so hard to bear; remember God is always there to comfort and give you all His peace. We know that memories of Aunt Elaine's motherly love, kind-heart and compassion will continue to live on in all your hearts. Now that Aunt Elaine is a bright light shining in Heaven, may time soften your pain and sorrows until all that remains is the beauty of the shared memories.

Love always
