“ To the family of Ms. Glenda Stanley:

My childrens godfather is Alvin Joe Brown. I was saddened to hear about the homegoing of your dearly beloved Glenda. My heart goes out to you during these difficult times of your bereavement. I want you to know that God is able to do anything but fail. He sees. He knows who you are. He knows where you are. He sees the tears. He.knows your fears.

Seek Him while He can be found. He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him. He is guaranteed to always be with you. He is a great Friend. He is a Great Comfort Keeper.

We love you and are praying for the family.

Sincerely Sent

“ Glenda was a true team player on the Hospitality Ministry at New Life Church. As her team captain, I will truly miss serving with her. On our last conversation, Glenda talked about the awesome power of God. How wonderful is that, to remember that your last conversation with someone is about God's power! My sincere condolences to the family. Even though Glenda's passing grieves us, we can find comfort in knowing that she had a personal relationship with the Lord. Philippians 3:21 " He will take our weak mortal bodies and change them into glorious bodies like His own, using the same power with which He will bring everything under His control." Glenda knew about that power.

Rest in peace my friend,

Pat Cannon

“ My heart is heavy hearing of the loss of Glenda. I met her in Nov 2013 while serving Thanksgiving lunch at the New Life Community Center. She expressed an interest in joining the Hospitality Ministry that day, and she did just that. She served with warmth, compassion, and a beautiful smile, she will be truly missed. My condolences to the family, I'm smiling through the tears remembering Glenda. Love, Debbie Bynum

“ When we suffer the loss of a love one it can be devastating however it should be comforting to know that God desires all of us to live forever as noted at John 6:40 “This is the will of my Father, that everyone who recognizes the Son and exercises faith in him should have everlasting life.” We should take solace in the fact that one day Death will be no more. As stated here at Revelations 21:4 “He will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more.”
