“ To the a Family of Mr Glenn Bellamy, I've known Glenn for over 20 years he was always the same Glenn, I don't believe I ever seen or heard Glenn angry, He was a great loving husband, father and grandfather he was also a great sibling to his brothers and sister. He was more of a real brother to his In-Laws so much so they began looking alike. Glenn will truly be missed but not forgotten I pray we see each other again when I get to the other side.

I Loved you like a brother, I thought of you as a brother, until we meet again brother....

I will miss you.

“ My sincere condolences to the family of Glenn. The pain and anxiety can be overwhelming. May you find comfort and peace from Gods word that says to "throw your anxiety upon him, because he cares for you. 1Peter 5:7). God promises to rise again our loved ones that have fallen asleep in death. (John 11:24,25 Isaiah 26:19). As you ponder that wonderful promise may your fond memories of Glenn bring you joy during this very difficult time.

“ To Jennifer and all of Glenn family my husband and I are sending our condolences. We have shared some great occasions with you and Glenn and that is memories we will have forever. God has added another angel to his fold. Celebrate the time he was with us here on earth spreading his love and smile. He is now in a peaceful place and no longer in pain. Thank you Glenn and thanks Jennifer for sharing him. Jennifer if there anything you need or we can assist with please don't hesitate to let us know.

Sincerely
Jerome and Kathy Price
