“ Cousin Gloria and I had not seen each other since we attended Davisboro Academy. Her grandmother was my Auntie. Even though age and distance separated us she was still loved and will be missed. Rest in Peace Cuz, Annie Evonia (Frances) Bell Brown.

“ As a member of our family Gloria sat in her chair well, and those of us who knew her, and interacted with her, know that our lives were improved because she passed our way.

Gloria's departure leaves a tremendous void with her immediate family and extended family. Perhaps words in this poem describe feelings during this time of bereavement.

*If tears could build a stairway, and memories a lane.
We would walk right up to Heaven and bring you back again.*

*No farewell words were spoken,
No time to say "Goodbye".
You were gone before we knew it,
and only God knows why.*

*Our hearts still ache with sadness,
and secret tears still flow.
What it meant to love you -
No one can ever know.*

*But now we know you want us
to mourn for you no more;
To remember all the happy times
life still has much in store.*

Since you'll never be forgotten,

*We pledge to you today~
A hollowed place within our hearts is where you'll always stay.*
