“ Sheena Martin

I met Gloria over 20 years ago working at Akerman Security systems. We became friends then and stayed friends after I left. Gloria was that kind of person such a sweet spirit. I pulled my picture out we took together at my wedding reception. I still cannot believe you are gone but never forgotten. I am praying for the family. RIP my sister. Love you!

“ Gloria Jean I am glad we had a close relationship when we were little girls, to our adult hood. You are a beautiful young lady, with such a beautiful smile and spirit. I remember when we would ride the truck white rabbit to the country. You will be truly missed.

Love your cousin

“ I met the McBrides over 15 years ago when their son was one of my students. Mrs. McBride had such an awesome spirit and attitude about everything. She was always smiling and dressed to impress. Over the years, we kept in touch. It was such a shock to hear this news. God has called a very special angel into his garden. She will be missed. May God keep her family in his loving arms. You are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ I first met Gloria J McBride almost 16 years ago at Ackerman Security where we worked in scheduling side by side until she moved back to Central Station. We hit it off and became family. Although I'm still in disbelief and my heart is numb with the thought of you being gone. You will truly be missed. Love your friend Tomika

“Gloria and I have been friends since she moved to my neighbourhood when we were in the fourth or fifth grade. She has always been the sweetest and happiest person I've ever known. I remember when the song Gloria came out and that was that. It was her song. I had to sing that song to her everyday. She would say “Sing Chico sing”. That was my nickname. Well Gloria here it is one more time

*Gloria
My Gloria
Things aint been the same
Since you went away
Gloria
My Gloria
I don't want to see
Another day
It seems like
Only yesterday
I beheld your sweet face
And In my lonely room
My memories of your embrace
Gloria
My Gloria
Things aint been the same
Since you went away.*

I love you
