All though you are gone auntie, my love for you is endless. You embraced me with open arms from when I was a little girl and would tell everyone that I was your daughter because we looked so much alike. I will cherish the fond memories and the laughter that you and I shared. As time went on you developed some health issues and I stayed by your side to the very end. I hope I made you proud and happy with the decisions I had to make on your behalf. I will miss you, but happy knowing that you are no longer in pain. You've earned your wings. Until we meet again. Love you!

“ May it comfort you in knowing that we know your loss is deep and your sorrow is great, but also know we share your sorrow, and more important, earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal; we recognize that this loss is Heaven's gain. aunt grace is now resting in her Master's hand.
