“ We can put full trust in what the Bible says about the dead living again because God gave life to all living creatures so he certainly is capable of restoring life to someone who has died (Acts 17:24,25).

“ My deepest sympathy in the loss of your dear loved one. To lose someone you love can be very painful. It can bring sadness and anxiety to our hearts. The Bible provides comfort to ease those feelings. 1 Peter 5:7 says: While you throw all your anxiety on him, because he cares for you. Also Isaiah 41:10; Do not be afraid, for I am with you. Do not be anxious, for I am your God. I will fortify you, yes, I will help you. I will really hold on to you with my right hand of righteousness. May these and other scriptures (Psalm 34:18, Isaiah 25:8 and Revelation 21:3,4) comfort and encourage you during this time of bereavement.

“ Gregg will be greatly missed. He was such a huge personality. So much life, knowledge, love, and energy packed into one person. We worked together. I enjoy being around people that are the same all the time and that was Gregg. His infectious laugh will forever ring in my ears. His conversation was so open and down to earth, yet he could write an email or letter like a Rhode Scholar. I often joked with him about writing some of my essays whenever I reenrolled in college. He spoke of his family often; his love for his kids was especially obvious. To his family, I pray God grants you peace that surpasses all understanding. To his beautiful kids, I pray Greg's love for you, his passion for life, and his yearning for knowledge encourage you to reach for the stars, and excel for the best...because that's what he wanted for you!
