“ I remember meeting Greg at the Believers' Bible Christian Church (Pastor McNair). We were both involved in a play production at the church (He played Moses). Greg and I used to talk after rehearsal all the time. Then after the play was over, we ended up working together in Bellsouth Advertising and Publishing. This was by total coincidence. I Thank Greg for all the help he gave me when I first started working in Publishing. I also thank him for the little jokes he would tell us (out of nowhere many times) at office meetings. God bless and keep the family. You are in my prayers.

“ My heart is broken from the loss of my friend. We always talked about trying out for Survivor but never followed thru. I will always remember the Caribou runs for coffee and hanging out at Dave & Buster's. Wish we had kept in touch more. Love you man!!!

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family. The loss of a love one brings to us the anguish of grief. Comfort can be found in God's word, the bible. The promise of a resurrection at John 5:28, 29 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. Taking in true knowledge of the true God and his son Jesus, assures us eternal life. (John 17:3)
