“ How lucky I am to have known Greg. He mentored me and others on the job. He was patient, disciplined, humble, trustworthy and steadfast, guided by faith and wisdom, and a true friend. His mentorship was not limited to the job, he also showed me how to grow and care for roses. With his help I planted my first rose garden. I will miss him.

My sincere condolences and prayers to his wife and family.

“ Gregory will be remembered for his kind heart and gentle spirit. He and Dianna were a loving couple who were excellent role model for their children and other family members. If you need help you could always count on Greg being willing to help in anyway he could. We all loved him but God loved him more. He is now at peace and with the elders in that great beyond. Until we meet again, my uncle and friend. May you rest in God’s eternal peace. Love, Reggie and Ferlandia.

“ Dear Dianna and the Monroe Family:
"I know for certain that we never lose the people we love, even to death.
They continue to participate in every act,
thought and decision we make.
Their love leaves an indelible imprint in our memories. We find comfort in knowing that our lives have been enriched by having shared their love."
You are always close in my thoughts and prayers,

The very worst part of grief is that you can't control it. The best we can do is try to let ourselves feel it when it comes. And let it go when we can. Prayers are going up in your behalf.
